Greetings!

The three of us are writing to you as members of the Yale Class of 1965 Reunion Committee—David, as one of the reunion co-chairs, and Dorothy and Lois, as coordinators for the widows of classmates.

The Yale Class of 1965 will hold its 50th Reunion in New Haven this May 28-31, and we'd like you to attend, not as "special guests" of the Class, but as real members.

We've reached that stage in life where old friendships matter deeply. With that common bond, the reunion allows us to share our memories, discuss our experiences, and explore our concerns and hopes for the future, as well as the chance to make new friends for years to come.

A few weeks ago, you should have received in the mail a reunion information package, including registration materials. If it's more convenient, you may also register for some or all of the weekend by going to www.aya.yale.edu/reunions and clicking on the Class of 1965.

As a reminder, there are no fees for the reunion or on-campus housing for widows who attend. There are many ways to participate: you're welcome for the entire reunion from Thursday through Sunday or to be there for only part of the time, and of course other members of your family are also welcome.

Several widows plan to attend on Friday, May 29 for the memorial service for our deceased classmates to be held at Battell Chapel from 5:15-6:15pm. Some will arrive for the service, some plan to arrive in the morning or at lunch to meet old friends, and others plan to stay for the Class Dinner that evening or the full reunion. We encourage you to consider what works best for you.

And, for those interested, an informal reception before the service for widows and their families will take place at 4:00 pm at the Graduate Club, located nearby Battell Chapel.

If you have any interest in joining us, or if you have any questions you'd like to discuss, please contact any of us.

We hope to see you at Yale in May. Fifty years is a big deal!
