2. Click on Log In tab (Step 1). Then create a Username and Password. You won't be able to sign in until you create an account. If for some ungodly reason you still remember your Username and Password from the 50th Class Book, go ahead and use it. You can then skip Steps 3 and 4 below.

3. Go to "Don't Have an Account?" tab. It will take you to the "First-Time Sign Up" page.

FIRST-TIME SIGN UP

Thank you for your interest! This website is maintained by the Class and uses its own usernames and passwords. Your AYA Yale Alumni Online Community username and password will not work here. You will need to sign up for a username and password for this website.

Signing up for a reunion yearbook website account is simple and it allows us to offer great features while keeping our Class information private and secure. To sign up for the first time, you will need to know your Yale alumni database ID. There are four ways to determine what your ID number is:

1. FROM THE REUNION BOOK MAILING

(/signup/form)Your Classmate ID number was included in the reunion book letter that you hopefully have just received. The number can be found at the top of the paper form labeled "Biographical Questionnaire."

[Take me to the sign-up. I already know my ID number. ➡]

2. FROM YOUR YALE ALUMNI MAGAZINE MAILING LABEL

(/signup/form)Your Classmate ID number appears a couple lines above your name on your Yale Alumni Magazine's mailing label. Refer to the sample below to locate your ID number.

[Take me to the sign-up. I already know my ID number. ➡]

```

ANYWHERE, USA 99999-9999
```

3. BY EMAIL

(/LOGINEMAIL.ASP)

[I can't find my ID number. Email it to me. ➡]

We can email you your alumni database ID right away if we already have a valid email address on file for you in our online directory. If your email address is correct in the alumni database, and it's been that way for a while, then you can probably use this option.

4. BY CONTACTING THE WEBMASTER

(/contact)IF THE FIRST TWO METHODS DON'T WORK FOR YOU... Send a message to our Webmaster (/contactus.asp) and then check your email for a reminder. Please do not try to get your alumni database id

[Request help from Technical Support. The other methods didn't work for me. ➡]

7. This will take you to the Update Home page. Add or update your "About Me" information. Then click the "Next" tab in the upper right ("Step 1 of 7"). Continue through the update process by clicking "Next" after each step.

8. When you get to "Photos" page, ignore the "College" section. Using the "Preferred Current Photo" tab, upload a new photo of you. Unless you do, no photo will appear in the book—old photos have been discarded. You may also upload other photos using the "Other Current Photos," though not all (or any) of these photos may be used. (Photos get saved immediately and displayed. Don't worry that there is no Save button on this page — your photo is saved when you see it appear on the screen, after clicking "Upload Photo.") Again click "Next."

9. When you get to the "Essays" page, you can write a new essay (if you wrote one for the 50th Book), or you can write a first-time essay (if you did not). For repeat essayists, you can write an appendix to your original essay. Note, however, that OLD ESSAYS WILL NOT BE REPRINTED in the 55th Book. Family, friends, and classmates will have to go back to the 50th Book if they want to see what you wrote last time. Be sure to save your essay when you are through. Then click "Next."

10. The "Review" page gives you a chance to review everything that will appear in the book, other than photos. Take a close look and go back and revise as needed.

11. Next time you come back to the website, all you'll need do is to log on with your User Name and Password. It will take you straight to the Home page.

Basic Demographics: This is name, home and work addresses, education, and honors/awards, some of it already filled in through a data download from the university. This page also gives you control over what information you want made public, or kept private. Note: The editors may choose to have portions of or all of your essays, pictures and everything else visible to other classmates at some time during the process, to encourage more participation in both the yearbook and in Reunions. Note that you do not have to complete all the forms at one time. You can do some, then return later.

Please upload a few photos that you would like to see appear with your entry in our 55th Reunion Class Book. We recommend you submit only two or three photos. Upload your favorite as the "Preferred Current Photo" and the rest under "Other Current Photos". We'll be sure to use your preferred photo and may use one or more of the other photos depending on layout constraints. For best reproduction in the book, please choose photos that are sharp and in focus, well framed and with good exposure and contrast. If you are using a digital camera bought within the last two or three years, your images should be fine. If you are scanning a developed print, scan it at 100% with resolution set at 300 dpi. You can upload color or black and white images.

And please notice that once your photo is uploaded to this page, you can write a short caption underneath it.

Note: Photos get saved immediately and displayed. Don't worry that there is no Save button on this page — your photo is saved when you see it appear on the screen, after clicking "Upload Photo."

Problems uploading photos?

If you encounter a message saying you can't upload the photo because it is under the minimum pixel dimensions, it means the resolution is not high enough. If you can't fix that, or encounter other problems, you may send your photos via e-mail to reunionpress@aol.com for advice. When sending photos by email, make sure the file name of the photo is your college name, last name first, not something like "55thphoto.jpg." In your email, identify the people in the photo or supply a caption. Please add your college and year at the end of your email as we host many different colleges and classes each year. Thank you.

On the Essay page, you can copy from something you've already written on your computer and paste it in the box. Or you can compose right here. And best of all, you can return to your Profile as often as you like if you have some new inspirations or second thoughts about a first draft — or even third thoughts about a second draft.
