

Materials on getting to Net Zero carbon emissions.

Climate Science Primers – on the causation and attribution of global warming

Niskanen Center Climate Science Primer 2017

https://www.niskanencenter.org/wp-content/uploads/old\_uploads/2017/03/NISKANEN-CLIMATE-PRIMER-2017-03-13.pdf

National Academy of Sciences Climate Change Evidence and Causes 2020 update

<https://www.nap.edu/download/25733>

The Princeton Study on which David Hawkins advised:

This link from Princeton describes the Net-Zero America study:

<https://www.princeton.edu/news/2020/12/15/big-affordable-effort-needed-america-reach-net-zero-emissions-2050-princeton-study>

A podcast for more information on the Princeton paper:

<https://www.greentechmedia.com/podcast/the-interchange>

Another podcast on getting to net zero emissions, along with links to the Princeton study and related studies.

<https://gimletmedia.com/shows/howtosaveaplanet/j4hzjwz/party-like-its-2035>

The House Energy & Commerce subcommittee February 18, 2021 hearing.

<https://energycommerce.house.gov/committee-activity/hearings/hearing-on-a-smarter-investment-pathways-to-a-clean-energy-future>. If this does not work, go to YouTube, search the link above, and you will find the hearings on Clean Energy for the past few years.

For the Yale Mason paper on politics and global warming, go to

<https://climatecommunication.yale.edu/wp-content/uploads/2021/01/politics-global-warming-december-2020b.pdf>